 Defendants.

Case No.

PAUL MARAVELIAS'S
 CERTIFICATION OF NOTICE
 TO DEFENDANTS PURSUANT TO FRCP 65(b)(1)(B)

Date Action filed: 2/10/2019
 Time: 11:00AM

I, Paul Maravelias, declare as follows. I am the pro se Plaintiff of this action. Pursuant to FRCP 65(b)(1)(B), I made the following efforts to give Defendants' notice that I would apply to this Court for an ex parte temporary restraining order against them.

1 On Friday 2/8/19 at 2051 EST, I sent the following email whose recipients included 1)
2 two contacts for the NH Attorney General, 2) the Town Clerk of Windham, NH 3) Gerald S.
3 Lewis, WPD Chief of Police, 4) Sgt. Bryan Smith, WPD, and 4) the two Captains and one
4 Prosecutor email contacts for WPD as available on the town website:

6 "Dear Sgt. Smith:

7 Thank you for meeting with me this morning at the department. I appreciate your professionalism.

8 Pursuant to F.R.C.P. 65(b)(1)(B), this email serves to provide you and your department (and, by 9 extension, the Town of Windham and the State of New Hampshire) advance notice that I intend to 10 file an Emergency Application for Ex Parte Temporary Restraining Order (TRO) against you in 11 NH Federal District Court on Monday morning to protect my federal constitutional rights and 12 restrain you from arresting me or issuing any warrants in response to my conduct of submitting a
13 public court exhibit in a routine NHSC appeal brief.

14 You do not have probable cause that I have violated a protective order pursuant to RSA 633:3-a,
15 and even if you did, this action is necessary to protect my constitutional rights against an overbroad
16 statute doubtlessly invalidated by whatever outrageous applied circumstances which could possibly 17 motivate such an arrest on its face.

18 I am terrorized at the prospect of being falsely arrested as a result of, it would appear, my lawful
19 First-Amendment-protected legal self-defense conduct - my mere participation in the adversarial
20 process. Given this circumstance of which I learned just today, I have reasonable fear that I will
21 suffer "immediate and irreparable injury, loss, or damage" if a TRO against you is not granted
22 before you "can be heard in opposition". See F.R.C.P. 65(b)(1)(A).

23 This is especially true as the Derry Circuit Court hearing for the protective order extension against 24 me is scheduled for 8am on Tuesday morning.

25 If circumstances over the weekend or early Monday morning come about such that you decide
26 certainly not to pursue any warrants against me in connection with this matter, please contact me
27 ASAP by cell at 603-475-3305 and/or email.

28 Respectfully and sincere regards,

Paul J. Maravelias
paul@paulmarv.com"

1 I could not find an adequate email contact address for the Rockingham County Attorney.
2 I did not give notice to Defendant John J. Coughlin since the sought temporary restraining
3 order and preliminary injunction do not enjoin him, as he lacks enforcement capacity.

5 Before the printing and filing this morning of 2/11/19 of the Original Verified Complaint,
6 Application for ex parte temporary restraining order, and related papers, I emailed a
7 preliminary copy of these materials to all recipient email addresses enumerated above. Said
8 emailed copies were solely to provide further notice pending formal service of process, and 9 accordingly may lack signatures, notary verifications, or other de minimis differences as 10 effectuated after the printing but before the filing of this action.

13 The above facts are within my personal knowledge and I am competent to testify to their 14 truth if called as a witness. I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of 15 New Hampshire and the United States of America that the foregoing is true and correct to 16 the best of my knowledge as of 2/11/2019.
